

SONOMA, MARCH 2, 1895.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

The latter part of February has been what farmers would term fine growing weather. The days have been warm and sunshiny and as there has been a remarkable absence so far of the usual dry north winds which prevail for a day or two during January and February the soil is moist on top and the genial rays of the sun is having a most beneficial effect on hay and grain fields and pasture lands. In consequence cattle are waxing fat in the fields and the outlook for a bountiful harvest of cereals in Sonoma Valley was never brighter at this season of the year.

Orchards and vineyards are also reaping their share of the benefits of the springlike weather of February. Fruit trees of all kinds are in blossom and never have they been so forward in that respect, and should there be no heavy frosts in March and April the prospect for fine fruit and plenty of it is all that could be desired by our orchardists. More attention is being paid to our vineyards this season than for several years past, owing to the recent advance in the price of wine. They are being pruned and cultivated with greater care and quite a number of new resistant vineyards are being set out.

The coming season will be a prosperous one in Sonoma Valley—that is to say, if prices for fruit, hay, grain and wine are good. The fields, orchards and vineyards will do the rest.

HENRY JONES, a Chicago drummer, thought he had as much right to wear a high hat in the theater as a woman had, and insisted on doing so. The next day he was fined $5 and now he wonders why the women folks are clamoring for more rights.

ALAMEDA COUNTY has a female Deputy Sheriff in the person of Mrs. W. F. Aram, who has been appointed as such officer by Sheriff

GLEN ELLEN.

The public school at this place will reopen next Monday.

George Beatty will give a social hop in his new barn on March 1st. Dr. O'Donnell spent a few days this week on his farm adjoining town.

Carrie, the little daughter of A. Simoni, has been quite ill the past week.

N. R. Hansen has leased the Glen Ellen Picnic grounds for the coming season.

Wm. Durant and daughter have moved to Sacramento where they intend to reside in future.

The Graham Canyon bridge is nearing completion and will be ready for travel next Sunday.

Quite a number of Glen Ellenites attended the masquerade ball at Sonoma last Friday evening.

L. W. Just and the firm of Miller & Wilkinson are extensively engaged in the poultry business.

REMINGTON.

Glen Ellen, Feb. 28, 1895.

Who is the Man?

A letter was received Wednesday by Judge Porter of Santa Rosa from Mr. Brady of Florence, Arizona, enclosing a photograph of four children taken by John Ross, photographer of Santa Rosa. The letter stated that the photograph was discovered on the person of a dead man who was found on the desert, and who is supposed to have died for want of water. Mr. Ross is looking up the date and name of the photograph, which he thinks was taken three years ago. The citizens of Florence have no other clue to the man's name or identity.—Santa Rosa Democrat.

FACT AND FANCY.

BY JEDWIN NEWBAME.

Petaluma may possess incubators that can hatch ostrich eggs; she may have communication with water with the bay; doubtless she can bottle pickles fairly well; some of her horses and chickens wear blue ribbons, but the muse of music dwells not with her. A realization of this fact would have been forced upon the most musically obtuse in our midst had they been in Union Hall on the night of the twenty-second of February, 1895.

The gallantry and beauty from miles around were gathered to "trip the light fantastic toe." Each ear was attuned to the harmony of sweet sounds, the limber feet trembled for the waltz, all eager pulsed the blood. For weeks "the Turner's Ball" had fallen from the lips with an expectant thrill, "awful beauty had put on all its arms," oblations had been made to Terpsichore, and now the moment was come. The carnival is hushed, anxious the seconds pass—oh! woe unutterable! "At the first note of the discordant din" the muse fled, shrieking from the place. In vain calls the horn! In vain the fiddle moans! Melody and time have flown.

The Turner's ball is an event of the past. The management did all that it could to make the affair a success and it was a success. Everybody had a good time, the hours slipped rapidly by. But please gentlemen, on another occasion, do not expect too many things of Petaluma. She is good in her line, but music is not in her repertoire.

If a man be devoted body and soul to an undertaking he will accomplish much, whatever his environment may be. The cause of many of the failures in life is a lack of enthusiasm and a keen appreciation of possibilities. These two elements of success—enthusiasm and appreciation of possibilities—together with an artistic temperament, are most happily combined in one of our citizens, Mr. Hugh Maxwell. The gentleman has done much for this community and in a general way it appreciates his efforts. But appreciation in a general way is not in the nature of reward for conscientious and zealous work, and to organize a band that is a credit to the town, and to belong to such a band requires a great deal of work. I have heard the band play and the music it renders, the time and swing of it, are far superior to that given at to have a musical organization with us we must patronize it.

There has also been organized a string band but I am told this will not be in working order for some time. However, when it is ready there should be given it a warm welcome. How is it that the world advances in any science or art? By the efforts of conscientious devotees. If you would see the art of music advanced here in Sonoma help the band.

An effort is being made with bright prospects of success to place the books of the Sonoma Library and Reading Room Association in the High School. Nineteen of the thirty-three members have signified their willingness that the transfer be made and none of the remainder have objected seriously. This move should meet with the hearty approval of all readers, for it will place the books within the reach of all under the same conditions that existed before, and will greatly enhance the usefulness of the High School. Should these words meet the eyes of any who have not yet signed the agreement it is sincerely hoped that they will promptly send in their names, to the end that the books may be thrown open to the public.

Anent the Woman's Suffrage question, where are women most respected? In Turkey, in Persia, in Hindostan or in America? Again, in which country have they the most rights in the eyes of the law? It is true that women can vote as intelligently as our foreign element and so there is injustice in not allowing them so to do. There is, however, a higher, a surer reason. Women have in the past proved themselves able to grapple with the problems of government. They have been rulers of nations. Women take honors in the Universities and any one who has been in classes with them must recognize the fact that their brain power is not inferior to that of man, other things being equal. God created woman to be man's helper; the union is a happy one. Life is seen in the full. Some say that woman is now respected because she is weak. Let it be so. If she has the vote she will be respected, because she is a woman. This I take to be a higher respect.

Schocken keeps the best and cheapest groceries.

The Sonoma House is a first-class house in every respect.

Mr. Ed. Wegner desires us to publish the following extract from a letter of Chas. M. Gutfield, of Red-ley, Fresno Co., Cal., as he handles the remedy referred to and wants his customers to know what a splendid medicine it is:

"It is with pleasure I tell you that by one day's use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I was relieved of a very severe cold. My head was completely stopped up and I could not sleep at night. I can recommend this remedy. A cold nearly always starts in the head and afterwards extends to the throat and lungs. By using this remedy freely as soon as the cold has been contracted it will cure the cold at once and prevent it from extending to the lungs.

Schocken always keeps on hand a complete stock of fresh groceries and dry goods.

The meals to be had at the Sonoma House, now kept by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stein, are the best to be had in any hotel north of San Francisco.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Meat tender and juicy at Weyl's meat market.

The Sonoma House is a resort for families visiting Sonoma.

Weyl's meat market is supplied with everything kept in a first-class butcher shop.

Families visiting Sonoma will find the Sonoma House a first-class hotel in every respect.

Ronald McDonnell, special correspondent of the Sonoma INDEX-TRIBUNE, visited Glen Ellen last Thursday.

Visitors to Sonoma on business or pleasure will find the Sonoma House as conducted by Chas. Stein the hotel of Sonoma.

The Sonoma dog poisoner is again making his rounds in this town, but is very careful to select the dark hours of night for his cowardly work.

When the scalp is atrophied or shiny bald no preparation will restore the hair; in all other cases Hall's Hair Renewer will start a growth.

Shiloh's Cure, the great cough and croup cure, is in great demand. Pocket size contains twenty-five doses only 25cts. Children love it. Sold by druggists.

The contest over the estate of the late Wm. Carriger, which has been dragging its slow length along in the Superior Court of this county the past two years, will not before Judge Crawford next Tuesday.

Now is the time to get a fine farm at a low price. We are offering three particular bargains this month. We have one farm for $4,000, another for $5,000 and one for $8,500. For further particulars inquire at this office.

N. R. Hansen, the popular proprietor of the "Glen Ellen Gardens," has leased the picnic grounds in that place for the season. It is the intention of the gentleman to give a series of picnics, which he proposes to have conducted in an orderly manner.

The City Trustees will meet next Wednesday in regular monthly session. Some important matters will come up for discussion, one of which is the purchase of a small piece of land from Mr. C. Aguilon for $125 for the purpose of lowering the grade at the northern terminus of First-street West.

The bicycle craze has struck Sonoma and a club with a membership of between thirty and forty will shortly be organized in this place. It is no unusual sight to see a dozen wheelmen spewing around the principal streets on their bicycles. There are also a number of lady bicyclists in this place, several of whom are expert and graceful riders. Among the latter are Miss Susie Shaw and Miss Hattie Gaines.

A petition signed by a large number of the residents of Glen Ellen and vicinity asking the San Francisco & North Pacific Railway Company to abolish Sunday picnics on their grounds in that town was recently presented to the directors of the road. So far no action has been taken in the matter. It is thought, however, that the request will be denied as the Sunday excursion trains of the Donahue system bring in more revenue to the road than all the other excursions combined.

In the fall of 1893 a son of Mr. T. A. McFarland, a prominent merchant of Live Oak, Sutter county, Cal., was taken with a very heavy cold. The pains in his chest were so severe that he had spasms and was threatened with pneumonia. His father gave him several large doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which broke up the cough and cured him. Mr. McFarland says whenever his children have croup he invariably gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always cures them. He considers it the best cough remedy in the market. For sale by all dealers.

Robt. A. Poppe, Sonoma's prolate lawyer, won his maiden criminal case in Justice Cheney's court last Thursday afternoon. The title of the case was the "People of the State of California vs. Antonio Minoletti." Minoletti was accused of petty larceny in purloining a bedstead, mattress, demijohn and shovel from G. DeBernardi on the 15th of last September, while the latter was in Switzerland. The value of the articles alleged to be stolen was very modestly placed by the principal prosecuting witness at the insignificant sum of $3. Assistant District Attorney Butts represented the People and "Bob" Poppe for the defense, and surprised the court and spectators with the skill in which he handled and argued the case. It is only a surprise to us that his Honor, who decided the matter in Attorney Poppe's favor, did not sentence all the witnesses for the prosecution including the suave and gentlemanly Assistant District Attorney to penal servitude in Siberia for life. "Tom," you had a narrow escape that time.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH.

Mrs Malini Thrown from a Cart and Literally Scalped.

Mrs. Malini, wife of F. Malini, a prominent Italian merchant of San Francisco, and owner of the Nathanson ranch, located two miles north of town, was thrown from a go-cart last Tuesday morning and received injuries which caused her death shortly after the accident.

The deceased with her two-year-old grandchild and the six-year-old son of Manuel Azevedo, an employee, left the ranch in a go-cart about 9:30 o'clock in the morning to come to town. Upon nearing the gate leading into Mrs. R. J. Snyder's place, the horse became frightened and ran away. The cart tipped over and the occupants were thrown out a short distance from the gate, while the horse after running thirty or forty yards became entangled in the harness and came to a standstill.

No one witnessed the accident except the children, both of whom escaped injury, and they being too young to give an account of just how it occurred, the way it exactly happened will never be known.

The little boy after being thrown out, and seeing Mrs. Malini lying alongside the road covered with blood, ran back to the house, a distance of nearly a mile, and told his father, Manuel Azevedo, that Mrs. Malini was hurt.

Azevedo and others made all haste to the scene of the accident and upon their arrival Mrs. Malini was found lying unconscious alongside the road with blood pouring from a terrible wound in the head, the scalp by some means having been almost completely torn from the head, and was only held together by a small shred of flesh. The two-year-old child was lying a short distance from its grandmother and escaped without so much as a scratch.

Azevedo hurried to town and secured the services of Dr. Davis. The doctor upon arriving at the scene found the poor woman lying where she had fallen. She was unconscious and unable to speak. An examination showed that the skull had not been fractured and he proceeded to dress and stitch up the wound, which was bleeding profusely, when she gave a few gasps and expired.

F. Malini, the husband of the deceased, who was absent in San Francisco, was summoned home. The news of his wife's sudden and shocking death was a terrible blow to him.

On Wednesday morning Coroner Young held an inquest on the remains. The jury, which was composed of W. F. Bean, R. B. Atwood, G. S. Harris, John Stadenmann, D. M. Eschbach and D. Calloway, rendered a verdict of accidental death.

The deceased was a native of Italy and aged 53 years. The remains were taken to San Francisco for interment on Wednesday afternoon's train.

Another Black Eye for Sonoma.

Fred. Batto will commence the erection of a fruit dryer at Vineyard Station next week, which will have a capacity of 500 tons. This enterprise of young Batto's will, no doubt, not only prove profitable to himself, but also to the orchardists of this valley as well. Sonoma ought to have a dryer, too, but her people are too slow by half. The next thing we expect to chronicle will be the establishment of a cannery at either Vineyard or Kenwood. There are some people we know of in this town that don't believe in any kind of public enterprise. They say fruit dryers and canneries are no good. That we have always got along without them and what is the use of having them anyhow. The folks ought to get in his work here.

"Mardi Gras" Gathering.

A very pleasant impromptu party was given at the home of Mrs. A. F. Haraszthy on Monday evening last, where quite a number of young people assembled attired in white dominoes and other fantastic costumes. The dress worn by one of the participants was very attractive, being made up of a graceful-looking white Spanish flounce and black mantilla. The evening was enjoyably spent in dancing, singing and the playing of games. At 11 o'clock all proceeded to the dining room where a delicious repast which was prepared by "Uncle Bean" was partaken of. The festivities of the evening were then resumed and continued until the early hours in the morning. The following were present: Mesdames A. F. Haraszthy, L. Emparan, E. K. Stevenot, M. J. Haraszthy, Misses Mamie Stevenot, Maggie Stevenot, Lola Haraszthy, Leoni Stevenot, Anita Emparan. Messrs. Jesse Burris, S. A. Ringstrom, Robert Pasch, Will Appleton, Jack McDonnell, F. Bean, Fred. Stevenot, M. Haraszthy, Walter Schott, Osmond Haraszthy.

The Sonoma House, Chas. Stein proprietor, is a popular resort for commercial travelers.

THE MASQUERADE BALL.

A Grand Success—The People of Sonoma Valley Turn Out En Masse.

Those Present and the Characters They Sustained—The Spectators.

The ball masque given at Union Hall on the evening of Washington's birthday by the Sonoma Turn Verein brought out almost every party-going couple in Sonoma Valley. The grand march, which was led by Miss Nellie Donaldson, representing the "Sonoma INDEX-TRIBUNE," and George Engler, who personated the character of "The Boss," was participated in by nearly one hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen.

A remarkable feature of the ball was the large delegation of maskers from Glen Ellen, numbering fifty or more, all of whom deserve especial mention for the parts each sustained. Space, however, forbids going into full details. Among the little ones, however, Miss Pearl Allen, as the "Newsboy" and Miss Melvina Martens as the "Flower Girl," sustained their characters to perfection and attracted a great deal of attention.

The costumes worn by many of the ladies and gentlemen were elegant and attractive, while those of others were grotesque in the extreme. The committee having charge of the affair, Jas. B. Small, Charles Cheney and C. Haderman, did all in their power to make the ball a success, being assisted by the entire Turn Verein.

Floor managers Harrison and Albertson had their hands full during the evening owing to the crowded condition of the hall, but under their excellent management everything moved along like clock work.

The following are the names of the maskers and the characters they personated:

Real Estate Transfer.
Chas. Dal Pogetto purchased yesterday through the real estate agency of H. H. Granice the McMackin property on Napa street, adjoining his barber shop on the east and having a frontage of 25 feet on that thoroughfare and running back to an alley in the rear 157 feet. The price paid was entirely satisfactory to all parties concerned. At the present time there is a wooden structure on the premises occupied by Peter Keil as a tin shop.

Five Thousand-Dollar Horse Sold for $75.
"Fairmount," the $5,000 trotting horse, purchased a few years ago by Chas. Fair, son of the late Senator Fair, for $5,000, and who traveled a mile with ease last 4th of July in 2:35, was sold to W. L. Crooks of Benicia last Saturday by G. S. Harris of this place for $160, together with a buggy and harness. The horse was purchased from the Fair stock farm a few weeks ago by Mr. Harris for $75. This shows a fearful decrease in horse flesh.

How to Cure Rheumatism.
ARAGO, COOS CO., OREGON, Nov. 10, 1893.—I wish to inform you of the great good Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done my wife. She has been troubled with rheumatism of the arms and hands for six months and has tried many remedies prescribed for that complaint, but found no relief until she used this Pain Balm; one bottle of which has completely cured her. I take pleasure in recommending it for that trouble. Yours truly, C. A. BULLORD. 50 cent and $1.00 bottles for sale by all dealers.
